

PUBLICITY OFFICER'S IN ABSENTIA REPORT

Adam Biltcliffe

For : THCS Annual General Meeting, March 12th 2005

Not to be opened until the AGM

Herewith, the report of me, Adam Bittcliffe, and the activities undertaken in my role as Publicity Officer to the Trinity Hall Computer Society during the period of my appointment, February 28th 2004 to March 12th 2005, as prepared for the Annual General Meeting of the aforementioned Trinity Hall Computer Society, March 12th 2005, at which I will regrettably not be present.

To be entrusted to the care of the most responsible President of the Trinity Hall Computer Society, and not to be read before the aforementioned Annual General Meeting on March 12th, 2005.

My apologies for not being present at the Annual General Meeting; I have a planning meeting for something I actually volunteered to do.

If you're reading this, I hope the AGM has started.
Reading it beforehand is cheating; it is not fair for the President to know what's going to happen in the meeting before everyone else.

THIS MEANS YOU BANICHI

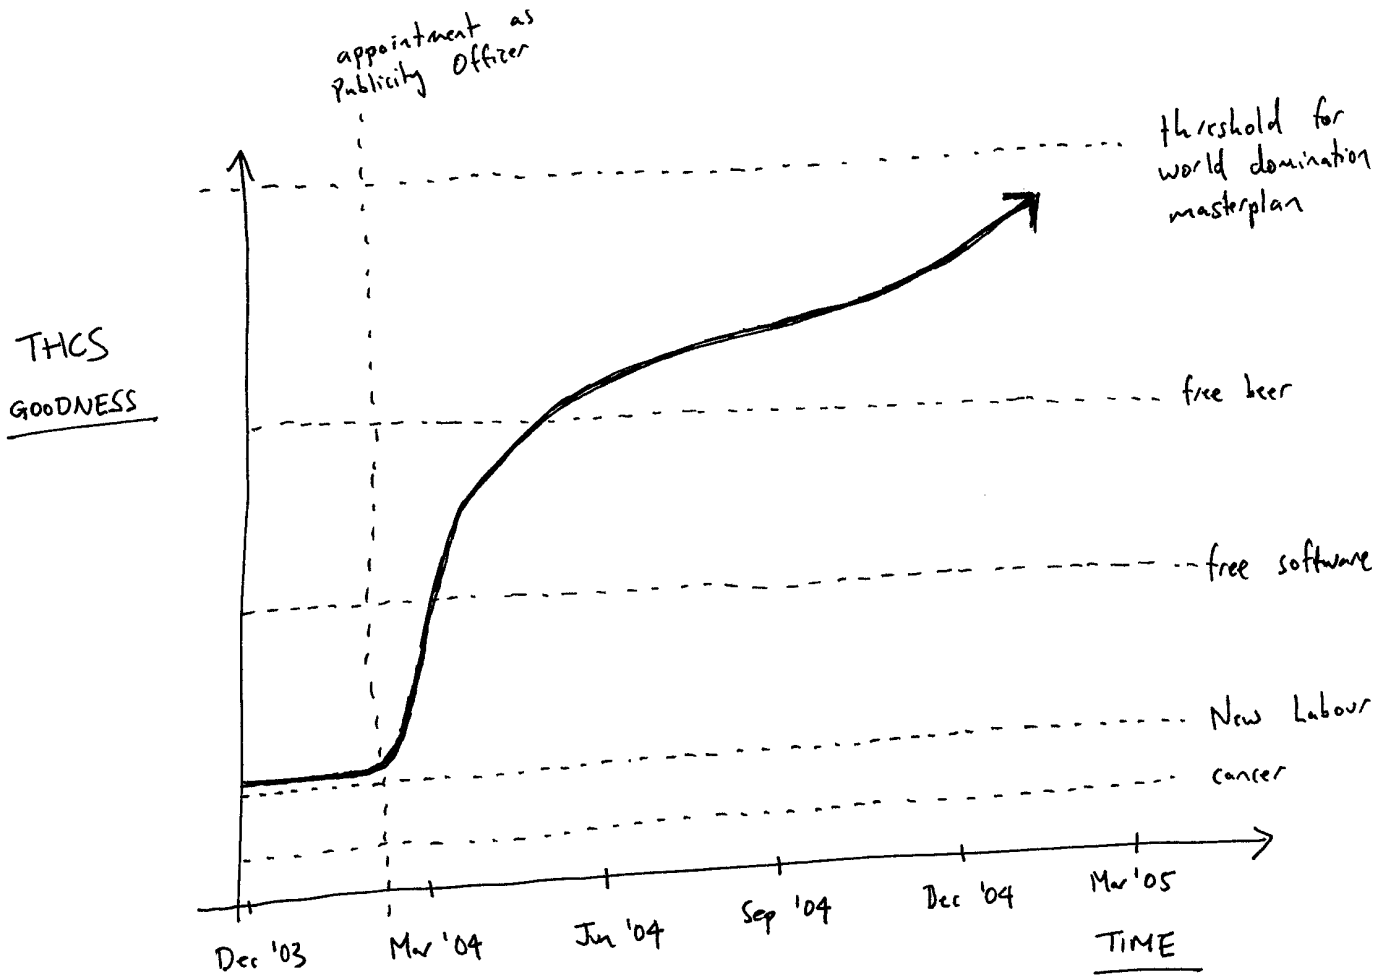

Adam

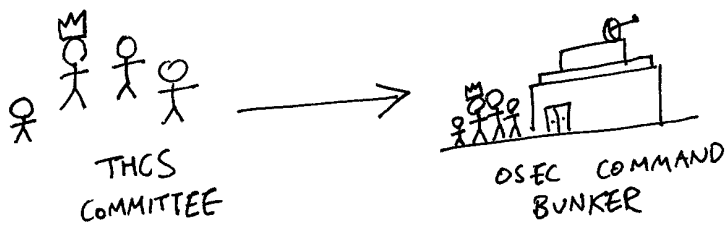

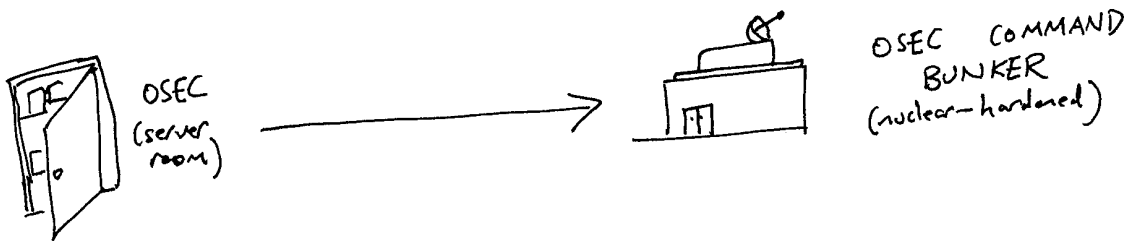

Activities undertaken as Publicity Officer Feb 2004 - Mar 2005

- All promises made in my campaign for the post of Publicity Officer 2004-2005 have been fulfilled
- Convinced Martin Lester to join THCS
- Failed to convince anyone else to join THCS
- Attended meeting of THCS committee and Hal admins; swore at former President
- Added 'Publicity Officer, Trinity Hall Computer Society' to my CV; happily have not yet been asked for details by prospective employers
- ~~Successfully re-kitted Hal and turned it into a successful and profitable online pornography provider~~
- Repeatedly asked the Treasurer for money to buy coloured pencils
- Invented slogan: "THCS: it rhymes with SUCKS"

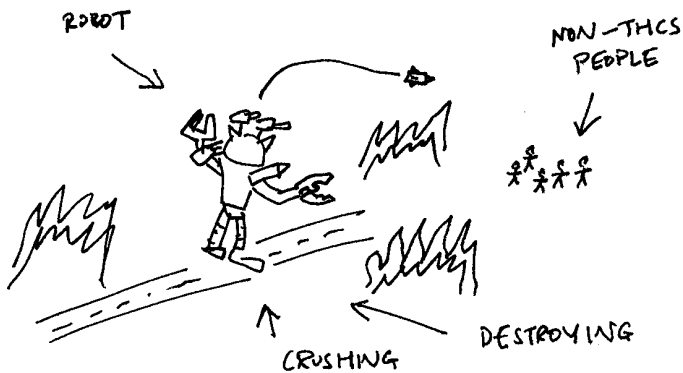

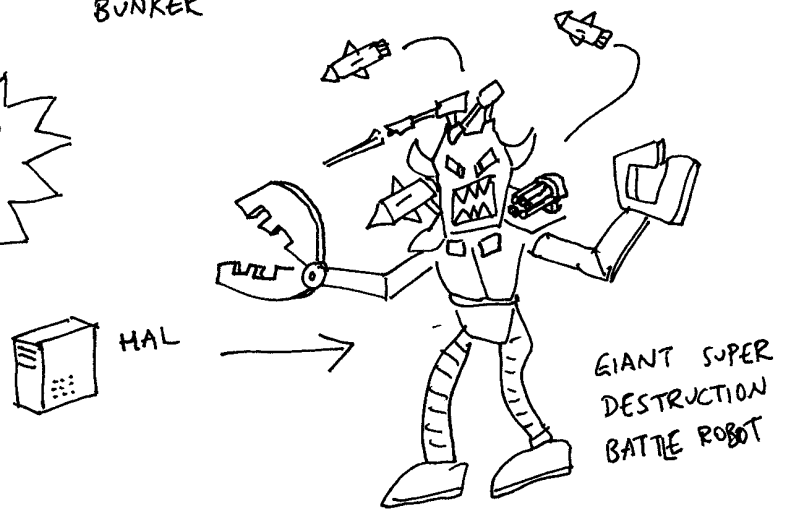

GRAPH

THCS WORLD DOMINATION MASTERPLAN

ENGAGE HIDDEN EXTRA FEATURE!

A WINNER IS US!